TILEING TAKES THE PRIZE.

JAMES H. M'CORMICK'S COLT WINS THE RICH QUEEN CITY HANDICAP.

Pasadena Is Second, Phil Finch Third and Plantland, the Favorite, Last-Record Crowd at Latonia.

Cincinnati, O., June 22 .- The largest crowd of the meeting saw James H. McCormick's Tileing win the rich Queen City Handicap at Latonia today. western horsemen and speculators preferred to give the call in the betting to Plantland and Pasadena on account of Tileing's long journey, Mr. McCormick had faith in the colt and he and his friends backed him at profitable odds. Tileing ran the best race of his career. He was caught in a jam on the first turn and almost knocked out of it, but Garner got him straightened and he rapidly over bauled his opponents on the backstretch, gaining a contending position on the upper turn. In the stretch he showed the most speed and won with a bit in reserve. This brilliant victory following the successes of Glorifier in the Carter and Metro politan Handicaps, gives Mr. McCormick a place one of the luckiest horsemen of the racing season

With the big field of thirteen horses was not altogether truly run. Plantland was jammed back at the half mile post and repeatedly jumped on in addition to being weakly handled by Gaugel. At the post Prince Ahmed acted badly and when the barrier went up, "Hold On" Jimmy had him by the head. He got away so poorly that he had no chance. The running of Peter Sterling was disappointing. That patched up old campaigner Phil Finch ran a remarkably good race and had the journey been at a mile or a mile and a sixteenth. inctead of a mile and an eighth, he might have won. The time of the race was 1:52‡. The race had a guaranteed value of $10,000. Of this amount the winner received $8,275, the second $1,000 and the third horse $500. This was the second running of the race, 'Sir Huon winning it last year

All fears of a bad track vanished early this morning when the sun shone its brightest. The crowds began coming in regular streams just before noon and continued until post time for the first race, taxing the grounds to its utmost. Twenty-four layers occupied stands in the betting inclosure and they handled a tremendous volume of money during the afternoon. In the first two races jockey J. on Ben Strong and Balla, both owned by L. A. Cella, started his followers, at least those that were not disheartened by his failure to pilot a winner yesterday, off on easy street. Balla's victory was attended by much grumbling because of her sudden improvement.

Colloquy gave an exhibition of her great speed by spreadeagling the good sprinters against her in the fifth race. Toward the end she tired a bit, but wor handily enough. After appearing hopelessly beaten Miss Lida surprised the big crowd by running all around her opponents in the last race and won as her rider pleased.

Hanbridge again demonstrated that he is above the ordinary by his impressive victory in the third It was his third straight win. The showing Ada O. Walker, which fought it out with him stride for stride during the last sixteenth, was also

James McCormick will ship Tileing back to New York Monday. In addition to winning the stake he had a commission of $500 on his horse, getting top price for all of it. Jockey Garner will leave New York tomorrow. Jockey Nicol was disappointed in not being able to secure a place in the big race. He will return to Buffalo tomorrow. He says Fred Cook's Johnnie Blake is equally as good a colt as was George C. Bennett. "As a matter of fact," said Nicol, "I don't know how good the youngster is. He has always done everything asked of him and won his races with much in reserve." Owner Fizer said tonight that he found elever different cuts about Plantland's legs after the rui ning of the stake. Gaugel was mainly held to blame for the horse's poor showing. Starter Holtman says he was forced to let Prince Ahmed take the inner rail at the post on account of his bad actions. He kicked out viciously and landed on Tileing, causing slight Holtman says that Pasadena cut Prince Ah med off sharply at the barrier's rise.

Separator, which ran in the name of W. A. Smith & Co., had to be coupled in the betting with Hon t on account of Milton Young's having an interest

The showing of True Wing in the Handican was decidedly disappointing to T. H. Ryan. away slowly and showed little speed. Her long trip may account for her bad showing. King of Troy which will be shipped to Windsor tomorrow, is when he faces the starter worth remembering Canadian tracks. With better racing luck he would have been a sharp factor in today's stake.

That Jockey Garner felt confident of Tileing's ability to land the big race was exemplified who at the half-mile post he shouted to Nicol on The "Follow me, kid, and you will get se

ELLICOTT'S WHIRLPOOL HANDICAP. FANTASTIC WINS WINDSOR FEATURE. PETER PAN WINS THE TIDAL.

Track Records Are Lowered at Buffalo-Question Over Placing in First Race.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 22.-The Whirlpool Handicap the feature race at Kenilworth this afternoon, easy for Ellicott, the Buffalo Derby winner. Only four of the thirty-two eligibles went to the post with the top weight, Martin Doyle, always the choice with the betting public. wretched ride ruined whatever chance Martin Doyle might have had. Anderson rode him into a pocket on the first turn and, while going down the backstretch, he messed his mount about and was cut off and interfered with several times. In the meantime Ellicott was out in front setting a fast pace with Brown making every post a winning one. He won by a couple of lengths from the Seagram colt Deuce. Martin Doyle faltered in the third and was a beaten off third. The mile was run in 1:39½, or two-fifths of a second faster than the previous track record for the distance, made by Au Revoir July, 8, 1905

The track was at its very best. In the second race the three-year-old Spion ran five and a half furlongs in 1:05%, or one-fifth of a second faster than Pat Bulger ran the distance a couple of years In the fifth race George S. Davis ran the mile in 1:39, or one-fifth of a second faster than did Ellicott in the fourth race

Evenly balanced fields went to the post in a ma jority of the races and exciting finishes resulted, the winners in three being hard ridden to win by small margins

In the first race there was a question as to whether Stanley Fay, the winner, should not have been disqualified. At the furlong post Stanley Fay, which had set the early pace, took a tiring swerve and to those in the stand it looked as if he struck the favorite Wm. H. Lyons. At all events, Mc-Carthy took the latter back. The finish found Stanley Fay under a hard drive to stall off Shirley R.'s rush. Wm. H. Lyon, in next to the inside rail, appeared to have lasted long enough to stall off Pedigree and beat the latter out a head for third money and considerable surprise pressed when Desideratum's number was displayed as finishing third. Desideratum was in close pursuit of Stanley Fay until straightend out in the home stretch, where he began to tire and at the finish was beaten off. Judges and stewards were positive. however, that Desideratum had finished third, although it was hard to find any one on the ground to agree with them.

The closing race resulted in a dual between Thistle Do and Marster. The pair raced like a team for the entire trip with Marster having a slight advantage until in the last half dozen strides, where Thistle Do managed to poke his head in front.

Shirley R. ran in the name and interests of M. Spaulding, who purchased the filly of Tommy Griffin's agent previous to the first race. Canopian, which was claimed out of a selling race at Toronto by Jack Sheehan, ran in the colors of W. Walker, his old owner. This race, however, went to N. Strauss, in whose interest the horse ran.

E. M. Mitchell's Margaret, which was jumped on and cut down in her last race, is mending and it is probable she will train again.

Jockey W. Dugan, who rode Nealon in the Su burban Handicap, returned from New York this morning and will ride at Kenilworth for the re mainder of the meeting.

ANNOYANCE IS TO MAKE HER DEBUT. Only Two-Year-Old by Meddler in America Will Start Tomorrow.

Annoyance, the bay filly by Meddler-Victoria IV., which is carded to start in the sixth race at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow, is the only two-year old by that famous sire that will race in this country this year, unless W. K. Vanderbilt should take a notion to send one of his three two-year-olds Meddler over from France, and that is not likely

The late W. C. Whitney had some sort of an aversion to Meddler when he was mapping out his plans for the breeding season of 1904, and the only sent five of his mares to the court of that great horse. They were Harmonica II., by Hanover— Reclare; Hessie, by Hanover-Lida Stanhope; Louise N., by Luke Blackburn-Louise T.; St. tine, by St. Carlo-Callatine, and Victoria IV., by Ten Broeck-Nell Swift. These five mares were sold at the dispersal sale of Mr. Whitney's stud in October, 1904, the first named four being sold to John S. McDonald for Mr. Vanderbilt and sent that winter to his establishment at Poisey in France, where the following spring all save St. Callatine had foals. The colt out of Harmonica II. was named Beach; the colt out of Louise N. is known as Schuyler, and the filly out of Hessie is called Tessie. The two colts have stake engagements in England as well as in France.

Victoria IV. was sold to Karl Jungbluth of Louisville, Ky., for $1,100 and in the spring of 1905 she foaled Annoyance at the Waldeck Stud. summer Mr. Jungbluth concluded that would forego the sport of racing because of in-creasing demands on his time by the tobacco business and he sent the yearlings from his place to the market at Sheepshead Bay and in September Meddler's only foal of 1905 in America was knocked down to Woodford Clay for $450. Mr. Clay named her Annoyance, and she showed him some fast trials as a yearling. When he took his string to Lexington from the farm near Paris last spring she again displayed speed, but before racing time came she was slightly off and it was decided then to go slow with her. Now that she has been named to start, it may be taken for granted that she is ready.

Annoyance has an unnamed full-sister in England which won the Addiscombe Plate as a twoyear-old for Mr. Whitney at the Gatwick August meeting in 1903. This unnamed filly was foaled in 1901 and was Whitney in the fall of 1902. making her first start in the Addiscombe Plate, which was a selling stakes, and when E. J. Percy bid her up to $850 Mr. Whitney let her go.

Victoria IV, is a half-sister to Waswift, Swiftly, Little Ben, Dr. Eichberg, Ida Carby and Swiftmas. and she is the dam of Quatre, Lanky Bob and Puritan Girl.

FOALS AT MILLSTREAM STUD.

Lexington, Ky., June 22.—The foaling season has closed at the Millstream Stud and there are thirteen sucklings now at Oakwood Farm owned by Andrew Miller and his partners. Pond Lily, Brit ish Blue Blood, Zealandia (dam of Waterboy), Musette and Merry Jest all have colts by Handspring while Flirtineer has a filly by the same sire. The other youngsters are:

Bay colt, by Sanders—Disadvantage,
Bay colt, by Ben Brush—Candle,
Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—Cereta,
Bay colt, by Kingston—Nadavis,
Chestnut filly, by Star Dixon—Purity,
Chestnut filly, by Africander—Shaft,
Chestnut filly, by Allan-a-Dale—Twitter.
The yearlings of the farm will go east about the first of July. They are ten in number, six colts and four fillies. The pick of the collection is a bay colt by Watercress, out of Shaft. Shaft is a young mare by The Pepper and is a half-ister to Leonidas. Among the other youngsters are a brother to Broadcloth, a half-brother to Merry a half-sister to Dollie Dollars, a Jim Kelly, a half-sister to the Lady in Blue and brother to Golden Maxim. The pick of the collection will be trained by Tom Walsh, though they may have to go through the sale ring during the summer to settle up the breeding interest held in them by F. C. Bishop, that member of the Jockey Club being for the present out of racing.

Jockey Sandy says Montgomery is the gamest horse he ever rode and he has asked for future mounts on the son of Pessara.

SON OF COMMANDO PILES UP THE EARNINGS FOR JAMES R. KEENE.

Cohort Comes Out as an Added Starter and Triumphs In Foam Stakes-Hylas' Success In the Beacon.

New York, June 22.-James R. Keene is reported to have said before the racing season began that he expected Peter Pan to be as good a three-yearold as was Sysonby. Few of those who heard of the remark were disposed to agree with Mr. Keene, but it begins to look as if the vice-chairman of the Jockey Club was not far wrong in the estimate he placed on the son of Commando and Cinderella.

Peter Pan won the rich Tidal Stakes at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon with consummate ease Whether he is as good a horse as Sysonby-whatever he may accomplish later on in the season-will always be a matter of personal opinion, but at any rate he seems destined to serve Mr. Keene as well in his three-year-old year as did Sysonby, which made a clean sweep of every race in which he started with the exception of the Metropolitan Handicap, when he ran a dead heat with Race King. Peter Pan hardly made so good a start as Sysonby, for Frank Gill beat him in the Withers and Dinna Ken took his measure in the Carlton Stakes. The defeat of Peter Pan in these two races must be attributed to lack of condition, as, being a big, gross colt, it was almost impossible that he could be wound up to his best form under the wretched weather conditions for training that prevailed previous to the running of these two events.

Now that Peter Pan is thoroughly at himself, he seems to be almost as much the superior of the other horses of his age as Sysonby did two years ago. Montgomery and Salvidere are about the only three-year-olds with any pretensions to being high class except the stable companions of Peter Pan that Mr. Keene's colt has not met and defeated. Salvidere is, of course, an unknown quantity, but as good a colt as Montgomery is, few would be willing to concede him a good chance of beating Peter Pan over a long distance of ground with their weight up.

Peter Pan already has earned $55,290 this season. By his victory in the Tidal Stakes, which netted his owner $15,050, he brings the stable earning of Mr. Keene for the season up to $140,081. His suctoday also gives his sire, Commando, a big lead in the standing of the sires of 1997 winners with considerably in excess of $100,000 to his credit. The prediction made early in the season that it looked like another Keene year is being verified, and it is not improbable that Mr. Keene's winnings for the season will go far beyond the $200,000 mark.

The victory of Peter Pan was not the only feature of today's racing at Sheepshead Bay. It is, in fact, far from improbable that three champions in their respective divisions won stakes at the Coney Island Jockey Club's course this afternoon. The Foam, for two-year-olds, was won by Cohort, an added starter; while the Beacon Steeplechase went to Hylas.

Cohort picked up 129 pounds in the Foam and won with such consummate ease from horses of fair class as to stamp him a youngster of the highest order. His victory gave emphasis to the belief that he should have beaten Notasulga for the Daisy Stakes yesterday. Notasulga, good filly though she is, had no license to beat Cohort in a truly run race, and that the Oneck Stable colt is one of the very best youngsters of the year is an of the very best youngsters of the year is any accepted fact. In fact, Colin seems now to be the only one that might be rated above him, and so far Cohort has the Indian sign on Colin, having won about $21,000, while Colin's winnings are less than $19,000. Each colt has won two stakes and their their meeting in the Great Trial next Saturday, when each will have to take up 129 pounds, will be awaited with much interest. The Great Trial fast six furlongs, but Cohort raced in the Foam as though the extra furlong would bother him but little.

though the extra furlong would bother little.

Hylas was never better than at present and his race in the Beacon was the best of his career. That he will be the star of the steeplechase division this season is prophesied by many, for Hylas gave weight to his opponents today and won very impressively. Nat Ray, his rider, has always claimed that Hylas was about the best horse he ever rode, except for his disposition to sulk at times, and has always maintained that Hylas at his best could defeat Good and Plenty when the latter was at the top of his form.

and Plenty when the latter was at the top of his form.

Ideal conditions prevailed for the racing today. A first class card was offered, and the attendance must have been fully 25,000 persons. Although the weather was stifling hot in the city, it was delightfully cool and pleasant at the Bay, and in spite of the fact that favorites generally were overthrown, the sport was pleasing.

Roseben's defeat in the opening race was attributed by many to the flat-footed system of starting, while the same reason apparently had much to do with the defeat of Colonel White, the oddson favorite for the fifth race. Peter Pan and Saracinesca were the winning favorites, though for the Foam Stakes Sepoy had but a slight call over Cohort, the winner.

Stakes Sepoy had but a slight call over Cohort, the winner.

Colonel White, which was entered to be sold for $500 and was heavily backed by his owner, as well as by the general public, after getting away poorly was pocketed when entering the backstretch, and although able to run fast throughout, was so hampered all the way that he could never extend himself. Naturally he was the target for claiming purposes and two bids were put in for him. The bidders were William Huston and F. R. Doctor, and in the shake for possession Huston won. Colonel White cost Mr. Huston only $1,380. At this price he is a very cheap horse as there are few selling platers around now capable of beating him. He was claimed out of a selling race by C. E. Durnell at Gravesend for $2,100.

Jockey Swain was suspended by starter Cassidy for six days.

Winner—Ch. c, by Banastar—Debacle (trained by W. L. Lewis).

Went to post at 3:31. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Hambridge, away slowly, saved much ground by staying close to the inner rail, finished fast and gamely and outstayed Ada O. Walker in the last few strides. Ada O. Walker ran a good, consistent race and is showing steady improvement. Bucket Brigade closed a big gap from a slow beginning and was going gamely at the end. Honest tired badly after showing a high order of speed for a half and was sharply impeded by Hambridge in the last furlong when the latter forced his way through next to the inner rail. Marcus Aarellus was knocked out of any chance at the start and closed a big gap.

Winner—B. f, by Russell—La Tour (trained by W. L. Lewis).

Went to post at 4:36. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Colloquy dashed into a long lead at once and had the others driving hard to keep within striking distance of her for the first half, was then eased up and won well in hand. The Chausman ran a good race and stood the final drive gamely. Electorine, away fast, keep pace with Colloquy close up in the early stages but, under weak riding, tired badly, only to come again gamely in the stretch. La Veita ran a good race and will improve. Warner Griswell ran sluggishly. Lillie Turner had scant chance with a poor ider and was virtually left at the post.

The latter showed superior early speed, but tired from pacemaking. James N. showed speed, but failed to stay. Colonel White ran a bad race and can easily beat such horses. PEOPLE WHO DO HARM TO RACING.

As an illustration of the fact that the people who do most harm to the interests of racing are of a low order in morals and intellect, a contributor to the Morning Telegraph recits the following as an incident of the recent meeting at Graves-

"After the fifth race Tuesday evening I went out and boarded one of the B. R. T. trains that was headed for the bridge and by the merest chance obtained a seat for myself. All the other seats in the car were soon gobbled up, and those who got in late had to be satisfied with a strap hold. Two big, tough-looking individuals scrambled into the car just as the train was moving out, and, as all seats and most of the standing room were already taken, they had to be content with one strap between them.

"They had been in the field inclosure and evidently had been picking them with rare bad judg-ment, as their conversation indicated. One said he personally knew every bookmaker in the field to be a second-story man, and that none of them would take as much as a $2 bet unless he had an ace in the hole. The other said he didn't believe there was a square race run on the track. Both agreed that horse owners, trainers and jockeys were all crooks and should be in jail and the keys thrown away. It was finally decided between them that they were the only two honest men who had been on the ground that day.

barely room for him to squeeze his way through. He would stoop down and collect from those who were seated first, then he would straighten up and the Court of Appeals before the first week in Octo-collect from the straphangers. When the conductor ber," straightened up opposite the two kickers from the field, and asked them for their fares, both spoke up together and told him he had already collected. "'I guess not,' said the conductor, 'I did not get your fares.'

"'But we say you did,' and they said it in such a tone that the conductor evidently thought he was mistaken and passed along without further argument.

"Here were two men who had been denouncing everybody connected with horseracing as crooks and cheats, who, as they loudly proclaimed, be in jail and the keys thrown away, cheating the conductor out of their fares, which amounted to but 10 cents each. But, then, when one stops to think it over, such a thing as that should cause no surprise."

NEW ANGLE TO BUTLER CASE. 7

Colonel Franklin Bartlett, who is the legal representative of the New York Racing Commission, says there will be no racing at Empire City track, the announcement of James Butler to the contrary notwithstanding. The case will go to the Supreme Court on appeal and Colonel Bartlett argues that a decision is not necessary to prevent the holding of the proposed meeting.

"No matter what others may say regarding the question of a stay," said he a day or two ago, "the notice of the appeal in the case of a state board does not act as a stay, and there can be no further "Just then the conductor came, crowding his action taken in the case until it is heard in the way through the car, collecting fares. There was Court of Appeals. This is specifically set forth in Section 1,313 of the code of procedure. Under or-dinary conditions, the case will not be reached by

PROFIT IN SIGHT AT KENILWORTH.

Expected that Murphy and Lazarus Will Take Over the Controlling Interest.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 22 .- If the patronage at Kenilworth Park for the coming twenty-four days continues as good as it has been for these first even of the spring meeting, it is entirely probable that Messrs. Joseph A. Murphy and Samuel Laza rus will close their option and take over the con trolling interest in the plant now held by the Westchester Racing Association. Last spring Messrs. Murphy and Lazarus leased Kenilworth with the privilege of buying the controlling interest next The attendance here on Derby Day was at least 12,000 and no day has seen less than 4,000 people at the track.

Among the apprentice jockeys here, J. Murphy, who rode well at Montreal, and James Hogg and I. Rosen are regarded as likely to become good jockeys. Rosen is under contract to August Bel-mont and was sent here by trainer John Whalen to ride as a free lance. M. Boasberg is looking after the boy's interests at Kenilworth and he has suceeded in getting him a number of mounts. Hogg is with the stable of M. L. and J. L. Hay man. He is a consin of Joseph Hogg who has not ridden since he had his leg broken at New Orleans, but will soon return to the saddle.

Messrs. Hayman have about forty horses here The majority of them are two-year-olds. They good looking lot and some of them should win before long. It is understood to be the intention of the owners to weed out the stable within the coming fortnight, reserving only such as they be lieve can win over New York tracks.

All of the horses in Jules Garson's stable are in good condition. They are in charge of Garson's father, Abe Garson. Wm. H. Lyon is the best of the two-year-olds.

The disappointment of the meeting has been the lack of good jumpers. The fields which have started in the cross-country races have been very ordinary, indeed, and any good horse could have won every steeplechase run so far.

As in past seasons, the track is policed by the Pinkertons under charge of Captain Rogers, a capable man. Since Captain Rogers' advent here the absence of touts has been noticeable and he has been christened by that element the "tout-terror."

KENTUCKY RACING NOTES.

Lexington, Ky., June 22 .- Milton Young's much talked-of two-year-old colt, Inspector, which was taken east with W. H. Laudeman's stable in charge of Trainer Kim Pattierson, went wrong recently in his work at Gravesend and this week was shipped back to McGrathiana Farm. He forfeited a number of valuable stake engagements.

The two-year-old chestnut filly, Los Angeles II. by The Bard-Los Angeles, by Glenelg, arrived here from New York this week to be retired to the stud at Hamburg Place. With her came P. T. Chinn's recent eastern purchase, the three-year-old bay filly, Chinela, by Ben Brush—Fairy Slipper. which is also booked for the stud. Chinela is : near relative to Peter Pan, her dam, Fairy Slipper, being a half sister to J. R. Keene's great colt.

The two well-known performers, Jake Sander and Hammeraway, both of which are owned by Henry McDaniel, are running out here at the farms of John Denton and J. C. Milam. McDaniel is letting them rest up for a campaign the comin The veterinarians say both will stand training again.

Beckon, the winner of the Astoria Stakes, is the eventh winner dropped by the brood mare Sema phore, she being also the dam of Hyphen, Soubrette II., Sauterne, Sedan, Swing and Shrove Tuesday. Semaphore foaled Beckon when she was eighteen years old.

John Morris' yearling brown colt by Griffon, out of Liandrinio, by The Arrow, was weighed the other day at Woodburn Farm and balanced the beam at 920 pounds. He is a half brother to three stake winners, Mexican, Lackland and Boanerges. Morris has twenty-one other yearlings now at Woodburn Farm. It is the largest crop he

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE TIDAL STAKES.

The Tidal is one of the most valuable stakes of the day. For twenty years it was run as a mile dash and at that distance was marked by some memorable contests. In 1902 its value was greatly increased and its distance lengthened to a mile and a quarter. One notable feature in its early history was the marked good fortune of Jimmy McLaughlin in riding six out of its first eight winners, no other jockey having anything near such good luck in guiding Tidal winners. The record of the race is as fol-

COMMENDS A. T. A. RULING.

In commending the American Turf Association's action debarring men and horses participating in Sunday racing from its tracks, Sports of the Times "The effect of this rule will be far-reaching as it is hardly likely that the Jockey Club will permit any owner to race on the eastern tracks who is not considered good enough for the American Turf Association, nor will it be likely to issue licenses to jockeys or trainers who have been ruled by that organization.

"But beyond thoroughbred sport this declara tion will have good effect. The supporters of all classes of sport must avoid the very appearance of evil if they wish to avoid the ruthless attacks of the puritans, who if they could have their way would shut up every racetrack and recration park on the continent.

"Certainly the professional baseball people should take warning. They will persist in trying to play ball on Sunday, while the scenes which occur at a big game when the umpire makes an unpopular decision are a disgrace to a civilized community. How long would trotting or thoroughbred sport survive if the races were interrupted by a rowdy crowd and the judges had to be escorted from the track by a cordon of police, while a fusilade of bricks and bottles filled the air Strange to say that section of the press which is so virulent against horseracing has nothing to say against these obnoxious phases of baseball,

"We have nothing to say against baseball, which is a grand and manly sport and pastime, but ve draw attention to the abuses in order to show he superior management of racing. It is also vell superior management of racing. It is also veil to know that baseball does not add one cen to the nation's wealth, while trotting and thoroughbred sport adds millions, for the country is dotted with stock farms devoted to breeding racehorses. We are glad that the American Turf Association has taken formal action on the Sunday question and we hope on the same line it will use every effort to put the grand sport on the highest possible plane. plane.

FOULING AND FINING.

"It is of course, an old thread to weave, but when a foul is deliberate, why should the horse be disqualified as well as the boy? This matter has been thrashed out time and again, and it marks just as taw a spot as when the query mark was first placed against it," says Sports of the Times.

"Of course if the middle course were taken, if the question of the type of foul were left to the consideration of the stewards, as it should be, and would be, this would mean more active responsibility to the stewards and probably another pail of slush the dippers of those irresponsible writers who persistently sling mud at these officials, slinging it blindly (more frequently than not where there is no cause, neglecting the cases where the cause is clear and patent to all practical observers), just slinging it blindly, firm in the conviction that if one slings sufficient some of it will stick—an adage old as the eternal hills, and having much of their stability.

"However, if a steward accepts the position, be it honorary or paid, he should also accept the full responsibilities. Several times this season, young as it is—there is no need to itemize the cases—there Several times this season, young as has been rough* riding which has been noticed—officially—and there have been disqualifications. In at least two of these the better horse of those behind him was in his rationally correct position, and it was the boy, not the horse, who was to blame. When the horse was disqualified a rank injustice was done to the record of the animal and also to all connected with the quadruped; even to those who 'fancied' him for the race or place.

"This means the drawing of a very fine line at times, but it is eminently one which should be drawn, in these days of dusting, disinfecting and furbishing in the public places, everything connect ed with racing. If the racing linen is to be osten tatiously washed in the public fountains let us have a little more of it done there. Not necessarily the very 'dirty' pieces, but those which will, by public cleansing, help the moral side of racing.

"While upon this subject it may not be out of place to point out, once again, that a mere fine has still 'inadequacy' stamped all over it. At a fine of two hundred dollars the leading jockey smiles. Half the time his employers are understood to pay it for him, and the censured boy comes back, with a smirk on his face, to do exactly the same thing $1.00 DAILY. over again, tacitly telling the officials what 'dubs' he thinks them. This the said officials do not appear "To set down a boy is to punish his employers, and the public, through the boy. The only way to work the setting down cure is along the lines Sports has often suggested, having it clearly understood, each spring, that three endersements mean the re-vocation of that license for the rest of the season, and grave doubts about reinstatement for another

"If a fine be inflicted do not fool with a paltry two hundred dollars when the boy is earning some-thing around twenty thousand dollars a year, earning it largely by the immunity purchased by these fines remember, but fine him something which will make him-or his employers wink. Say one-tenth of his estimated earnings the first time, one-fifth the second and one-third the third time.

"If this was done insubordination and rough riding would vanish in a night. There would be a howl, of course. Well, the freedom of this country renders it free for those who do not like the rule to follow some other occupation. We bond our bank clerks handling a few thousand dollars a day, we commercially cover ourselves on every side with preventive armor, but the jockeys who handle horses of inestimable value, on the success or non-success of which depends hundreds of thousands of dollars daily, in practically every city of importance in the country, these rattle brained midgets are permitted to run loose, bondless, free from all preventive of wrongdoing or carelessness, ducks-and-drakes of what they control for a vital minute or two, as their dispositions, desire to 'get even,' or natural cussedness, may lead them. Gentlemen, believe me, this is the Twentieth Century, not the Middle Ages."

SUBURBAN AFTERMATH.

While the honors among the three-year-olds that ran in the Suburban Handicap unquestionably be long to Montgomery and that son of Pessara must be ranked in the first flight of his age, allowance must be made for Electioneer, because of his colli-sion with Cairngorm and through which he completely lost his stride. After the race jockey Mountain said of Electioneer: "Do not think for a moment that Electioneer is not a good horse. He will win other good races, even if he did lose the Suburban. He would have wen that but for the interference. He settled down to racing so well after leaving the barrier that I had visions of an easy victory until the trouble came." So an early meeting between Montgomery and Eelectioneer is anxiously awaited.

Montgomery is carded to start in the Equality Stakes tomorrow, but Electioneer, while eligible, is not among those named to go to the post and it is not considered likely that trainer Lakeland will add him to the field. Electioneer is in the Swift Stakes, to be run Wednesday, but Mont-The son of Pessara is in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap, to be decided Thursday, but the son of Voter was not nominated. How-ever, they have a chance of coming together in Island Jockey Club Handicap, the Long Island Handicap, the Advance Stakes, the Spindrift Stakes and the Commonwealth Handicap.

Walter Miller says Running Water's sole trouble was a lack of speed. "If she had been as good as she was at times last year," said he, "she could have gone to the first turn with a lead of three lengths after the flying start she got." Jockey Sandy's handling of Montgomery has

EVERY MAN HIS OWN HANDICAPPER.

HAND'S CLASSIFICATIONS of AMERICAN HORSES and JOCKEYS, or INSTANTANEOUS HANDICAPPER for 1907-8.

By Nin S. Hand.

(Author of the original "American" and "Hand's Systems of Handicapping and Turf Speculator's Guide.")

This work is the result of over twelve years' experience, observation and careful study of the racing and handicapping business and contains the correct classification of about 7,000 horses, or practically all those in training in America, showing their relative class and handicap values (on both fast and slow tracks) in pounds, together with their individual peculiarities of disposition, favorite distances and track conditions, sulkers, bleeders, quitters, bad-actors, welght-carriers, cripples, etc., etc., as well as a complete classification of ALL jockeys and stable-boys now riding in this country, etc.

The classifications are accurate and carefully compiled, being based on sclentific mathematical principles and conditions as they exist TODAY, making it AN ABSOLUTELY RELIABLE and THOROUGHLY HIGH-CLASS PRODUCTION, and yet so simple that anyons of ordinary intelligence can readily understand it, and practically become an expert handicapper at once, without previous instruction or experience in the business, as all that is necessary, in addition to this book, is a copy of the entries and weights, distance and track condition, the rest of the work being virtually done for you before you begin.

If you are interested in racing at ALL, either as a breeder, buyer, owner, trainer, handicapper, book-maker or speculator, you cannot afford to be without a copy of this book, as it is POSITIVELY THE ONLY RELIABLE WORK OF THE KIND EVER ISSUED, and WORTH THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS Printed on best bond paper, indexed and bound in flexible, full seal-grained leather, 200 pages.

SAY! DO YOU WANT

to learn how to do your own handicapping? To be able to tell the class of a horse, also to find out the consistent horses from the in-and-out runners, the good selling platers from the poor ones? To be able at a glance to see if a horse is getting better or stale. To be able to find the soft spots certain horses get into almost every day. To be able to find one or two safe, conservative bets a day at any track. You can learn all the above and more, too, by using the ratings (of every horse running at any recognized track in the country), which appear only in with instructions given each week, how to use them (instructions started in Book No. 130). Not only do you get the ratings of the horses, but the latest and best workouts of the horses in training at all principal tracks throughout the country. It also tells the distance each likes best and needs to win. Tells if a mudder or not. In fact, gives you a line on horses that you can get in no other publication, as we have exclusive information from our own men at each track and hire the best we can get.

Not only that, but being owners ourselves, enables us to get information our men do not get. You also get our best bet each day
